Happy New Year!

I hope you all had an excellent Christmas break. As always, the festive season seems to have flown by and now feels nothing more than a distant memory!

But, despite the cold and the dark mornings (plus the threat of snow!), we've all enjoyed returning to school and seeing the children back in the classrooms getting stuck into their learning. It's also been wonderful hearing them talk about what a lovely Christmas they had, and I know they've been so pleased to catch up with their friends again.

I wanted to share some events that we have coming soon...

Each Friday afternoon, as you know, we have a celebration assembly, where we talk about and celebrate highlights from across the week. We would love to invite parents, carers and families along to our celebration assembly on Friday 17th of January.

At various times throughout each term, moving forward, we plan to hold 'open' celebration assemblies, where we will invite you to join us. The assembly on Friday 17th January will start at 2.45pm. However, the PTFA have kindly agreed to put teas and coffees on in the hall from 2.15pm - so please come along for a hot drink, biscuit, and a chat before the assembly.

Speaking of get togethers, I stumbled across a Samaritans event that I loved the sound of called Brew Monday. This is an event taking place nationwide. The idea behind Brew Monday is to get the community together to build connections and improve well-being. Please see the link below for more information.

Brew Monday is due to take place on Monday 20th January. The hall will be set up for visitors and I'll even get some nice cakes in for this one! Please come along, this event will start at 1.45pm.

Monday the 20th is shaping up to be a busy day...

This Brew Monday event coincides with a book and biscuit afternoon that we are also holding on Monday the 20th in the classrooms. Similar to the event we held last year on World Book Day, we would like to invite you into the classrooms from 2.30pm onwards to sit with the children and enjoy stories (and a biscuit of course).

Lots happening - we hope to see you at some of these events.

Have a great weekend.
